Historically African American people have endured systemic challenges that have created impediments to owning businesses, maintaining the family unit, and earning a living wage, among other social injustices, which result in impaired functioning in our own communities.

There is a need for intentional investment and attention to the ongoing challenges African Americans face. There is a need for platforms that demonstrate to the Inland Empire that culture and heritage can be a foundation for success and a tool for empowerment and growth at both the individual and community level.

For the past five years DEV Partnerships an Inland Empire 501c3 in collaboration with a collective group of non profit organizations has built, expanded, and utilized the platform of Black On The Block: Young Entrepreneur's Expo to foster community through family and culture in the Inland Empire.

HISTORY MISSION PURPOSE

The event is annually advertised to over 30,000 consumers & with 5 years of tenure has proven to attract participation from all over the IE. Black on the Block, is a collective effort of local non-profit organizations and is free to the public.

Unity | Community | Empowerment

Utilizing culture as a valuable asset BOTB forges bonds amongst community members, families, businesses, & charitable organizations to develop positive narratives within the IE.

Resources | Entrepreneurship | Health

All non-profit organizations participate for no cost to ensure that this space is welcoming & accessible. Through activities based on mental health best practices, health equity initiatives, & education, entrepreneurs learn, businesses grow, & the community is strengthened.

Fundraising

DEV Partnerships Inc is a 501c3 that has been serving the IE for 20 years by providing safe & affordable housing & care to those struggling with mental illness. All event proceeds beyond expenses are donated to this cause. We encourage partnership, through monetary donations, helping us plan, or amplifying our event through media, articles & radio streams.

Our goal: is to raise $50,000 to bring local artists & main headliners to the celebration at no cost to the community.

We can leverage our culture as a strength by investing in the physical & psychological infrastructure of our community.
